

Article 23-A of the New York State Correction Law

In sum, Article 23-A provides the following:

- No application for employment shall be denied or acted upon adversely by reason of an individual's having been previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses unless:
(1) there is a direct relationship between the criminal offenses and the specific employment sought or held by the individual; or (2) the continuation or granting of the employment would involved an unreasonable risk to property or the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.
- In making an employment – related determination concerning an individual who has a criminal offense in his/her background, an employer shall consider such factors as the following:
 - the public policy of New York State to encourage the employment of persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses;
 - the specific duties and responsibilities of the employment sought or held by the person;
 - the bearing the criminal offense(s) will have on the individual's fitness or ability to perform job responsibilities;
 - the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses;
 - the age of the individual at the time of occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses;
 - the seriousness of the crime(s) respecting there was a conviction;
 - any information presented in regard to the individual's rehabilitation and good conduct; and
 - the legitimate interest of the employer in protecting property, and the safety and welfare of individuals or the general public.
- At the request of any person previously convicted of a criminal offense, who has been denied a license or employment, the employer shall provide, within thirty days of a request, a written statement setting forth the reasons for such a denial.
- Article 23-A is enforceable by the New York State Division of Human Rights.

Volunteer's Code of Conduct

Our children are the most important gifts God has entrusted to us. As a volunteer, I promise to strictly follow the rules and guidelines in this Volunteer's Code of Conduct as a condition of my providing services to the children and youth of our [parish, school, facility, diocese, etc.].

As a volunteer, I will:

- Treat everyone with respect, loyalty, patience, integrity, courtesy, dignity, and consideration.
- Avoid situations where I am alone with children and/or youth at Church activities.
- Use positive reinforcement rather than criticism, competition, or comparison when working with children and/or youth.
- Refuse to accept expensive gifts from children and/or youth or their parents without prior written approval from the pastor or administrator.
- Refrain from giving expensive gifts to children and/or youth without prior written approval from the parents or guardian and the pastor or administrator.
- Report suspected abuse to the pastor, administrator, or appropriate supervisor and the New York State Child Registry (1-800-342-3720). I understand that failure to report suspected abuse to civil authorities is, according to the law, a misdemeanor.
- Cooperate fully in any investigation of abuse of children and/or youth.

As a volunteer, I will not:

- Smoke or use tobacco products in the presence of children and/or youth.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of alcohol at any time while volunteering.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of illegal drugs at any time.
- Pose any health risk to children and/or youth (i.e., no fevers or other contagious situations).
- Strike, spank, shake, or slap children and/or youth.
- Humiliate, ridicule, threaten, or degrade children and/or youth.
- Touch a child and/or youth in a sexual or other inappropriate manner.
- Use any discipline that frightens or humiliates children and/or youth.
- Use profanity in the presence of children and/or youth.

I understand that as a volunteer working with children and/or youth, I am subject to a thorough background check including criminal history. I understand that any action inconsistent with this Code of Conduct or failure to take action mandated by this Code of Conduct may result in my removal as a volunteer with children and/or youth.
